DAVIS THEATRE.

Thomas W. Foss in Checkers to Be
Thomas W. Foss in Checkers to Be
Thomas W. Foss in Checkers to Be

For the last half of this week the patrons of the Davis will have an opportunity of seeing the play "Checkers" in Henry M. Blossom, Jr.'s great novel. Checkers, a play in which Mr. Thomas scored a wild success all over the country. This picture is produced by the same company that produced "Arizona," that great six reel feature photograph that was seen here a short time ago. Checkers is staged under the personal direction of Augustus Thomas, America's foremost playwright and stage director. The production of "Checkers" is a masterpiece of expense, hundreds of actors appearing in the great racing and betting scenes. Nearly everyone is familiar with the story and many have seen the play staged in a small way, but the photograph production is incomparable as all the big scenes have been acted out in every detail, and the big racing scene could not be seen on any stage. With Mr. Foss and everything surrounding the picture there is not the slightest doubt that when you have seen "Checkers" you will pronounce it the greatest photograph that has ever been shown. The vaudeville attraction on this bill is "The Military Melodrama," one of the best musical acts of the vaudeville stage today. Other photographs will be shown, including "Princess," a thrilling K. drama, and "Love and Dynamite," one of those rip-roaring, action pictures that cannot be equaled by any other company of comedians. Matinee as usual tomorrow, all seats 10 cents.

Don't miss Mutt and Jeff in Panama—matinee and evening—today.

Mutt and Jeff in Panama at the Davis

Today.

The latest Mutt and Jeff series, entitled Mutt and Jeff in Panama, will be the attraction at Davis theatre, matinee and evening. The picture is a piece of the favorite newspaper cartoon creations of Bud Fisher appear under various captions and guises. They are not-don't call them Mutt and Jeff, but pseudo secret service agents, and pose as other characters with most convincing results, at least to the audience. There is lots of fun, plenty of exciting adventures, catchy songs, pretty girls and features that are only exclusively harbored in a show of this kind. Manager Geo. Hall has left nothing undone to make the offering one to conjure with. He has selected a large and competent cast of fifty people, who help to provide an entertainment calculated to find immediate approval anywhere. Matinee prices 25 cents to 75 cents; evening 25 cents to $1.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Denman Thompson's Famous New Minister, in Three Reels.

Chief among the greatest feature pictures ever shown at the Colonial theatre will be our New Minister, the prime attraction for the evening. The picture is a masterpiece of realism and vividness that is not possible in any stage performance, for real country lanes and village stories live again in all their genuineness. This is one of the biggest sensations of the year. Do not miss it. Besides this, there is Buster's Little Game, a strenuous western story, and Cities of Japan, a bewildering scenic film of rare oriental beauty and educational value.

Last Chance to See Pinafore at the Auditorium.

Mr. Hap Ward's Juvenile Pinafore Kiddies, which have been making such a hit at the Auditorium since Monday, will close their run here tonight. It is certainly a wonderful aggregation of clever children, and the whole town is talking about them. It is a well arranged, program consisting of sketches from that always popular opera, Pinafore, several old vaudeville numbers, and then a minstrel first part which is exciting and good. The principals in the cast work with the ease and grace of performers twice their age, and the chorus consists of all trained voices who sing through their different stunts with the precision of clock work. It is a neat and pretty exhibition of talent, and a treat for the eye and without a doubt, the best juvenile company on the road today. There will be a new set of pictures today, including a two reel Eclair drama picture in the new natural color process, entitled The Serpent in Eden. Eddie Lyons and an all star cast will appear in a Nestor comedy entitled Her Friend, the Butler. Jewels of Sacrifice, with Pauline Bush in a Rex drama. Mr. R. Nutting will again present the Country Store the picture, evening, with an entire new stock of goods to be given to the creditors of the store by the sheriff.
